Legion 49th Birthday

The Florence Eastman Post #280 of the American Legion, Mattapoisett, celebrated the 49th birthday of the American Legion at the Legion Post hall on Sunday. A New England boiled dinner was served.

Mr. John Raphael was master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers and past commanders in the assembly. Mr. Ernest Dexter was the oldest post member in attendance. He is 80.

Following the speeches, Mr. Raphael introduced Danny White, who was present with his father, Selectman George S. White, who spoke about Boys' State. Danny was sent to Amherst last June by the Legion to attend this annual event. He recounted his experiences and told of the political convention held during the session which teaches the boys first

Mr. Robert Marcellino was introduced. He has just returned from Viet Nam and when asked to make a speech he said, " It's good to be home", for the shortest, most heartfelt remark of the evening. His father, Joseph, was at work in the kitchen preparing the excellent supper.

Following the supper, Mr. Manuel Roza, finance officer of the Post, showed slides of his European trip.

BACK FROM VIET NAM

Robert Marcellino of 79 Rockland Street, New Bedford, is flanked by John Raphael and Post Commander Charles Savaria who congratulate him on a safe return from a one-year tour of duty in Viet Nam. Mr. Marcellino is an aircraft crew chief in the United States Air Force.

on the sale of tickets for the movie Never Too Late being shown for the scholarship fund at Tabor Auditorium on March 31. The very encouraging and exciting news that Tabor had already sold over 300 tickets was enthusiastically received by the membership. A report from Old Rochester Regional High will be received later - but the splendid posters they have made and distributed also demonstrated their willingness to make this a most success ful project.

Mrs. Eldon F. Hambly asks that the Community Service questionaires be returned to her as soon as possible so they can reach the State Federation office before April 1st, and thereby be eligible for the annual Awards Certificate.

Mrs. Nowak publicly thanked Chief of Police Ralph Shore for his cooperation with the club on the DRIVER IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM which the State Federation is sponsoring in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

Mrs. Samuel Lovell, third District Director for the State Federation, was the honored guest for the meeting and spoke on What the Federation Does and the importance of clubs being associated with the 40,000 women in the State Federation of Women's Clubs. She explained, particularly, how effective the Federation was on legislation in our state government.

Mrs. Robert M. Hastings was chairman of the hospitality committee, assisted by Mrs. Howard S. Bush, Mrs. Charles A. Ellis, Mrs. James Dickson, Mrs. Harold Younghans and Mrs. Andrew Patterson.

Mrs. Robert Mower, chairman for the annual luncheon, April 28th, at 1 P.M., asks that reservations be made with her for the Mattapoisett Inn as soon as possible.

JUNIOR GRANGE MEETING

The bi-monthly meeting of the Mattapoisett Junior Grange was held last Friday night with the worthy master, Mark Harris, presiding.

Honored guests were Edward Maxa, Prince of the State Grange; and Edna Day, a member of the State Home & Community Service Committee.

The chairman of the Junior Home and Community Service Committee, Mary Alcobia, presented Mrs. Day as her speaker for her part of the program. Mrs. Day spoke of the projects of her committee. She urged the Juniors to adopt an elderly person, to help them by running errands and visiting them and in any way possible to make their lives a little pleasanter. To her this is a real worthwhile project. Mrs. Day was presented a gift of appreciation by the Junior chairman.

The lecturer's part of the program was a Show and Tell Hobby Night, conducted by the lecturer, Joseph Alves.

MEETING HELD ON RETARDED CHILDREN

A group of interested parents and friends met at the home of Mrs. Dennis Sylvia in Marion to discuss the formation of an area group which will work with the Greater New Bedford Association for Retarded Children. This area group will assist parents of retarded children in the three towns of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester.

Mrs. Irene Dansereau, executive secretary of the Greater New Bedford Association for Retarded Children, spoke to the group on the educational, medical and recreational needs of the children and the steps necessary to answer these needs. She suggested that the individual parents join the Greater New Bedford Area as these three towns are serviced by the United Fund from New Bedford.

At the present time Marion and Mattapoisett are considered part of the Plymouth Area. However, the group felt the children would benefit more by being part of the New Bedford Area. An inquiry will be made by Mrs. Sylvia to determine the process Marion and Mattapoisett can be released from the Plymouth Area.

As an organized group members would be in a better position to obtain results for the educational needs of the retarded child. The formation of this group is a wonderful opportunity for the parents of a retarded child, or an exceptionally slow child, to join with other parents in solving similar problems.

Mrs. Sylvia, a former teacher at the Retarded Center in New Bedford, is a graduate of Fitchburgh Teachers College, and has had special training in teaching retarded children. She distributed various pamphlets to each parent who will read and review them at the next meeting for the benefit of all the members.
